

School Psychologist (part-time)

Company Overview

Roku Management Consulting (RMC) is a premier consulting and general contracting firm specializing in personnel, professional, and information technology services. Founded by a service-disabled veteran with a mission to create opportunities and provide exceptional customer service, RMC has rapidly grown, securing several federal contracts within three years.

Job description

We are seeking a dedicated and compassionate School Psychologist to join our team. As a School Psychologist, you will play a vital role in supporting the mental health and academic success of students. You will collaborate with educators, parents, and other professionals to provide comprehensive psychological services.

Duties:

- Conduct assessments to evaluate students' cognitive, emotional, and behavioral functioning.
- Develop individualized education plans (IEPs) and behavior intervention plans (BIPs) for students with special needs.
- Provide counseling and psychotherapy to students individually or in group settings.
- Collaborate with teachers and parents to develop strategies for addressing academic and behavioral challenges.
- Conduct crisis interventions and provide support during emergencies or traumatic events.
- Monitor student progress and make recommendations for interventions or accommodations.
- Maintain accurate and confidential student records.
- Stay up-to-date with relevant research and best practices in school psychology.

Experience:

- Bachelor's degree in Psychology or related field (Master's degree preferred).
- Valid state licensure or certification as a School Psychologist.
- Experience working with children and adolescents in an educational setting.
- Knowledge of social work, behavioral health, addiction counseling, child family counseling, and psychotherapy techniques - Familiarity with medical records management and patient care protocols